A home-telegram will be ready for delivery to subscribers at 4 p.m. to-day.

JUDGMENT WILL BE GIVEN IN THE Anda and Bona case on Monday.

A very elaborate work has just been issued in Shanghai by the Baron von Gumpach, giving a detailed account of the Portuguese Mission to the Chinese Emperor, and other recent political affairs in China. We have no doubt it will be read with much interest, and will endeavor to notice some of the salient points at an early date.

Cannot we really come to some understanding about the position of this unhappy Registrar-General's Department? Yesterday afternoon, before the Registrar-General, Mr. Francis made a statement before the Registrar-General, which, however, it seemed the Police Inspector considered it necessary first to report to Mr. Tommochy, and which that gentleman considered it his duty to investigate before he came before the Registrar-General. It is most undesirable that preliminary explanations of this kind should take place in matters which have to come before the Registrar-General, and according to a full explanation of the Ordinance constituting the Registrar-General's office which Mr. Francis made, these proceedings appear to be altogether irregular.

Marguerite Diehlmann was arrested in Paris last night, yesterday morning by Inspector Drusovitch and Puyard charged with the murder of Madame Riel, at 13, Park Lane. A portion of the missing property was found in her possession. A few hours previously the Government had issued a reward of £100 for the woman's apprehension.

A railway conductor having been convicted of embezzlement, the Chairman of the Surrey Railway has sent him to two months' imprisonment with hard labour. The accused for the prosecution strongly urged upon all who adopted this means of travelling not to stop their tickets in the case, but either to destroy or to take them home with them.

Two acts of requisition were yesterday morning exhibited upon the doors of Westminster parish church. The vicar, however, who has lately been charged with insubordination, conducted the service as usual.

This morning the Prince and Princess of Wales will leave Florence, and proceed to Milan. The King and Queen of Denmark will also leave Florence at the same time. It is stated in the London papers that there is no foundation for the rumor of French troops having been concentrated on the Italian frontier, and that no representations on the subject of Nice have been made by Italy to France. The relations between the two countries, it is added, are perfectly satisfactory.

(Daily Telegraph.) Lord Denbigh moved a resolution, at a meeting of the Warwickshire Chamber of Agriculture, specially called for the purpose, to the effect that the Chamber desired to promote a better understanding between farmers and labourers. Mr. Munz also condemned the practice of payment in kind instead of coin. The business of the meeting was then concluded. Discussions on the same subject took place at the Cambridge Agricultural Chamber of Agriculture, and at a large open-air meeting near Uxbridge.

A grand meeting of the Metropolitan district employees of the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway Company was held last evening at the Imperial Hotel, Southwark, to discuss the course to be pursued in consequence of a reply having been received from the Directors to a remonstrance previously made. Mr. Baxter Tamley, who presided, stated that a society was in contemplation among railway men to make six days to be considered a week, and to have a day's rest on the seventh day.

Official notifications convey the welcome intelligence of the abolition of passports to France. From the 20th of April passports will no longer be required on the Franco-Belgian frontier or of the Channel ports. The only formalities necessary to be gone through by travellers will be the usual ones of signing the daily newspapers. Confirmation is also given to the report of the Duc de Broglie having resigned his post as Ambassador at the Court of St. James's, solely for private reasons.

The Government expressed their regret at the necessity of a Saturday evening's reception at the Elysée was the most brilliant of the series. Over a thousand persons were present, including the Count and Countess of Paris, the Duke de Nemours, the Duke of Angoulême, the Prince and Princess of Sax-Coburg-Gotha. Efforts are being made by the French Government to obtain the release of the editor of the Messager de Paris, whose incarceration was due to his publishing an article offensive to the Prussian military authorities.

No negotiations, it is said, have yet been opened for the liberation of French territory; such negotiations being impracticable until after the return of Count Armand. (The reported concentration of French troops on the Italian frontier is declared to be quite unfounded, the relations between France and Italy being perfectly satisfactory, and no representations having been made by the latter on the subject of Nice.)

American telegrams report a large and enthusiastic meeting of Anti-Grant Republicans, on which occasion resolutions were unanimously adopted endorsing the call of a Liberal Republican Convention at Cincinnati, to be held in connection with the nomination of a candidate for the next Presidency. The chief journals predict a coalition between the Anti-Grant Republicans and the Democrats. Grounds for declaring war against San Salvador and Honduras.

There has been a large meeting in New York of Republicans who are opposed to the re-election of President Grant. Mr. Horace Greeley, Mr. Schurz, and Mr. Trumbull took part in the proceedings. A coalition between the Democrats and the Republicans hostile to President Grant is predicted.

A telegram from Brussels informs us that the King had received M. Ozenne, the French Secretary-General of the Department of Agriculture; but the same source of information contradicts the charge of a preparation on the part of France to modify the Treaty of Commerce.

Judge Keogh resumed his hearing of the Galway election petition. Several witnesses deposed to strong evidence in favour of the late Mr. Keogh. The case is now adjourned to the 10th inst. Lord O'Hanlon was spoken of as an extenuator.

A boy thirteen years of age has been killed by an elephant in a menagerie at Hailey, in the Foscoville. The animal was the centre of attraction to a number of children in the park of an inn, and some of them having given it stones instead of food, the animal attacked the deceased boy, and inflicted injuries which soon proved fatal.

A First Boy: "We met a boy on the street, and without the consent of his mother, he exclaimed: 'You just get down to the river a while ago!' 'Why?' we inquired. 'Because a nigger was in there swimming, and a big catfish came up behind him and swallowed both his feet and his head, and he came to the top of the water with him, and there came behind another big fish, and the nigger swallowed his tail, and the bigger and two fish were swimming.' 'Well, then, what?' 'Why, after a while the nigger got his head and his other fish swallowed the nigger, and there was the last law of either of them.' 'Sonny,' said we, with a feeling of alarm for the boy, you are in a fair way to become editor of a Humbug paper."

His Holiness the Pope, on occasion of giving an audience to four hundred foreigners, representatives of various nations, took occasion to recommend each, according to its respective needs, to the prayers of Catholics. He praised the immense charity of France, and used gentle words to certain Catholics who had shown themselves intolerant. "Poor Italy!" was said for us found in chains by the contributions of blood demanded of her for military service. Germany was praised for its civil and religious and ambitious spirit; and a special application was added for "the souls who call themselves old Austria, Ireland, Poland, Holland, and America, were also included in the prayers and benedictions of his Holiness."
